

DOCTOR HIT BY CAR DIES FROM POISON

Dr. Abraham Skverecky, Knocked Down by Trolley, Had Taken Bichloride of Mercury.

Mystery surrounds the death at Power Hospital at midnight last night of Dr. Abraham Skverecky of No. 460 Madison Avenue, who was taken to the hospital suffering from slight injuries sustained by having fallen or thrown himself beneath a surface car, and then was discovered to have taken bichloride of mercury.

Dr. Skverecky declined to enlighten the hospital authorities as to how he took the poison. He died from the effects of the bichloride less than an hour after his admission to the institution.

Dr. Skverecky, who fell in front of a Lexington Avenue car at 53d Street and was dragged from beneath the trolley by Dr. Frank, was thirty-two years old and practiced at No. 649 Madison Avenue with Dr. John M. Keyes, whom he met in France while serving in the war as a surgeon in the Mt. Sinai Hospital unit. After returning from the war, Dr.
Skverecky was a member of the Mt. Sinai Hospital staff and was a visiting physician of the Neurological Hospital.

Two Coal Handlers Killed.

Alexander Defano, twenty-eight, of No. 68 Van Duane Street, Tompkins-ville, and Anthony Grosssky, thirty-eight, of No. 115 Jersey Street, New Brighton, coal handlers, were instantly killed this morning on a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad coal car at Arlington, Staten Island, when the heavy door of the car beneath which they were working, fell. An investigation has been ordered to start how the door was released.

Mrs. Appelbaum Out of Danger.
Mrs. Miriam Appelbaum, fifty with her husband has been at Knickerbocker Hospital since Friday night suffering from the effects of bichloride of mercury tablets which the couple said they mistook for a tonic. Today was reported to have passed the danger point.
Her husband's condition is not so satisfactory.

A Charming Collection of Bandeaux and Brassieres

TODAY the well-dressed woman is demanding exquisite daintiness in every article of clothing and the result is plainly seen in the corsets and brassieres she buys.

Instead of the purely practical brassiere that used to content her she must have a dainty creation of lace or satin or both.

Our Corset Department has recently received a most attractive assortment of bandeaux and brassieres, fit to charm the fancy of the most fastidious woman.

Real lace (Irish, Fillet or Rose Point) combined with satin—Palest crepe de chine—Hand embroidered linen—Brocaded satin—Italian silk—And so the list goes, each one more charming than the last.

Two enchanting new styles are an evening ban-deaux of pink and blue satin, minus any back at all, and one fashioned of black shadow lace, outlined in gold.
